

Introduction to Electronic Portfolio Design: Final Project Rubric

Mechanics	No spelling or grammar errors.	One spelling or grammar error.	Two to three spelling or grammar errors.	Four to five spelling or grammar errors.	More than five spelling or grammar errors.
Home Page	(1)Home Page is clearly distinctive from other pages and makes visitors want to explore your portfolio. (2)It includes an image or banner that is eye-catching. (3)Homepage contains a contact link as well as a link to all other pages. or sections. (4)A brief description of the portfolio's purpose is provided.	Three of the criteria in column one are met.	Two of the criteria in column one are met.	One of the criteria in column is are met.	None of the criteria in column one are met.
Links	None of the links are broken. All links lead to the correct page (based on link title). Links are in a distinctive color. External links open in a new window.	Three criteria from column one are met.	Two criteria from column one are met.	One criteria from column one are met.	No criteria from column one is met.
Images	At least 5 images are included. No images are distorted or pixilated. All images are visible in the published version of your portfolio. Images related to the content of your portfolio.	Three of the criteria in column one are met.	Two of the criteria in column one are met.	One of the criteria in column is are met.	None of the criteria from column one are met.
Copyright and Fair Use	Content is only used if it is allowable under Fair Use and	¾ of the content meets the requirements listed in the first	½ of the content meets the requirements listed in the first	¼ of the content meets the requirements listed in the first	None of the content listed meets the requirements

	Creative Commons guidelines or you received written permission from the owner. A citation is included for all content that requires it.	column.	column.	column.	listed in the first column.
Previous Assignments	Course assignments 2-5 are included in your portfolio.	Three of the course assignments (assignments 2-5) are included in your portfolio.	Two of the course assignments (assignments 2-5) are included in your portfolio.	One of the course assignments (assignments 2-5) are included in your portfolio.	None of the course assignments (assignments 2-5) are included in your portfolio.
Mock Job/Grad School Interview	All questions are answered with detail. You show how your skills will enhance the job or grad school program you are applying for. You give examples from your electronic portfolio to answer some if not all of the questions.	Three of the four criteria from the first column are met.	Two of the four criteria from the first column are met.	One of the criteria from the first column is met.	None of the criteria from the first column is met.